

X-Games PROPTED QUESTIONS

1. When were the first X Games held?
(Prompt- So I'm watching while the Olympics have been in existence for thousands of years, the first X Games were held at mountain resort in Big Bear lake CA in 1997.
2. How are the X Games different from the Olympics?
(Prompt- Athletes in the X Games and the Olympics compete for gold silver and bronze medals indicating first second and third place in any event. Olympic athletes receive only a medal but X Games winners also receive prize money.
3. Which of the following is a summer x games event?
(Prompt- The summer X Games focus on skateboarding, BMX bicycle, and Moto X competitions.
4. What equipment would not be at the summer X Games?
(Prompt- The winter X Games include new sports like snowboarding and snowmobiling.
5. Athletes at the X Games can wear advertising just like who?
(Prompt- Maybe the skateboarders look like they've come off the street but bicycle and BMX riders are covered with advertising just like NASCAR drivers.
6. The tricks the X Games participants perform include which of the following?
(Prompt- the X in X Games stands for extreme. While the winter and Summer Olympic Games look to find the fastest and strongest athletes in traditional events like running, broad jump, discus throwing and swimming, the X Games emphasize daring tricks using equipment that is cutting edge. Who would have thought that doing air tricks while on a small bicycle could be anything but a circus act?
7. What do gold, silver, and bronze medals at the X Games mean?
(Prompt- Athletes in the X Games and the Olympics compete for gold silver and bronze medals indicating first second and third place in any event. Olympic athletes receive only a medal but X Games winners also receive prize money.
8. List 2 winter X Games sports.
(Prompt- the winter X Games include new sports like snowboarding and snowmobiling.
9. List two summer X Games sports.
(Prompt- the summer X Games focus on skateboarding, BMX bicycle, and MotoX competition.
10. How do the summer X Games differ from the winter X Games?
(Prompt- the winter X Games include new sports like snowboarding and snowmobiling. The summer X Games focus on skateboarding BMX bicycle and motocross competition.

11. What kind of equipment do X Games athletes use?
(Prompt- the X Games emphasize daring tricks using equipment that is cutting edge such as bicycles, motorcycles, skateboards, and snowboards)

12. Explain how the X Games got their name.
(Prompt- the X in X Games stands for extreme.)

13. Would you like to see the X Games in person? Explain why or why not.